

Designing Storage Architectures for Digital Preservation September 27-28 2010 Library of Congress Sofitel Hotel, Washington DC
Time	Topics
September 27
Noon	Lunch
1:00	Opening / Welcome
	Overview of Trends in Storage Architecture Solutions History and Roadmap of Needs of Preservation Community Comparison with Needs of High-Performance Computing Community Resilience Themes and Directions
	Storage Architectures for Digital Preservation: Case Studies from Users and Communities
	Storage Architectures for Digital Preservation: Case Studies from Community Service Providers
5:00	Close-out Day 1

Designing Storage Architectures for Digital Preservation September 27-28 2010 Library of Congress Sofitel Hotel, Washington DC
Time	Topics
September 28
8:30 – 9:00	Continental Breakfast
9:00	Opening Day 2
	Data Integrity: Ensuring One Good Copy User Needs Vendor/Provider Solutions
	Data Compression and De-Duplication Trends User Needs Vendor/Provider Solutions
	Processing and Analytics of Large Datasets User Needs Vendor/Provider Solutions
Lunch
	Format and Technical Migration User Needs Vendor/Provider Solutions
3:00	Close-out Day 2

Sofitel Hotel
 806 15th Street NW
 Washington DC

Meeting Contact: Jane Mandelbaum jman@loc.gov
 202-707-4429